ORIGIN

DISTRIBUTION

[illegible]

1. The Chinese Communists have inaugurated large-scale conscription in Dairen.
2. The Chinese Communists have been using 6 trucks to transport ammunition from Dairen to Yingshaho (營沙河). Several large guns have been shipped from Shihho (121-62, 39-20) to Port Arthur.
3. A large number of Chinese Communist troops have been concentrated southwest of Wafangtien (122-02, 39-38).
4. Armed units of Chinese Communists have been moved from Dairen to Shihho and Liangohiatien (121-56, 39-13) and concentrated there. Recent plans call for a counter-attack on Wafangtien.
5. The Chinese Communists have left only the Peace Preservation Corps in Dairen. In the middle of April the Chinese Communists moved all (?) foodstuffs and goods from Dairen to Chinohou (121-43, 39-07). Robberies occur in the daytime in Dairen. The Soviet military authorities have forbidden the Communist Peace Preservation Corps to take over public safety.
6. The area around Ch'angtienpao (121-53, 39-22), T'angfangt'un (121-59, 39-21) and Fantzupao (繁子堡) is the rendezvous for all important Communist military meetings.
7. The Chinese Communists have their quartermaster depot on the Chinghou front in the area of Liangohiatien and Tengshaho (122-01, 39-16). High political and military Chinese Communist officials and their supplies are there.
